4. Guest Speaker, Michael Khoury, LLP:

Michael Khoury passed out the Marketing Plan because he would like input from the Town of Sharon before submitting. Peter O'Kane, Town Engineer from the Town of Sharon, is looking for a map and spreadsheet and a chart of the affordable units. Susan Saunders asked if all the units are the same size. Maureen O'Hagan stated there at 29 - 1 bedroom and 19 2 bedroom units. Rents would be $1,620 - 1 bedroom and $1,790 - 2 bedroom. These are 2019 rates and they will adjust in 2020. Maureen O'Hagan offered to handle the lottery and would like to have SHA do the re-certifications. Nancy Bartley asked about salary involved. No one answered and again mentioned she was not interested in working more hours than the housing authority required. Maureen O'Hagan mentioned she is the monitoring agent for other developments. Peter O'Kane asked if the town wanted to be the monitoring agency. He hasn't heard anything since March, 2019. Susan Saunders said if the SHA board is in agreement, the SHA would like to not be the monitoring agency. Edwin Little motioned that SHA was not made the monitoring agent and Susan Price seconded. All in Favor. Susan Saunders brought up as to whose responsibility it is to pay the monitoring agent. More information is going to need to be gathered.
