

November 18, 2013

Press Release

Sharon Residents, Military Veterans, Business Owners

You are cordially invited to attend the below noted event to honor an American hero, Sharon resident First Sergeant James A. Keating. 1st Sgt. Keating was Killed In Action during WWII after rescuing a wounded comrade. He received this country's third highest award for valor in combat, the Silver Star Medal. Please join us in dedicating this beautiful monument to our own hometown hero!

Deputy Chief of Police J. J. McGrath

FIRST SERGEANT JAMES A. KEATING MEMORIAL PARK MONUMENT DEDICATION

Date: November 30th, Saturday

Time: 11:00am

Location: Station Street @ South Pleasant Street, Sharon

Rain or Shine

There will be the posting of colors by the U. S. Army National Guard's Yankee Division Color Guard, a prayer by local clergy and several speakers.