 The Governor's State of Emergency expired on June 15, 2021. After this date, all meetings are required to be in-person. The Legislature is currently considering Senate Bill 2472 and House Bill 3872, which would extend remote participation for meetings until April 2022. A final vote has not yet been taken on either version. If a bill is signed into law prior to the start of this meeting, the meeting will then be held virtually.

Note: Items may not be discussed in the order listed or at the specific time estimated. Times are approximate. The meeting likely will be broadcast and videotaped for later broadcast by Sharon Community Television.
