RE: Sharon Public Library
1 School Street
Sharon, Ma 02067

Dear Abutters of the New Sharon Public Library,

We'd like to share with you the following:

Site work and excavation for the new building's foundations is ongoing. The loading and trucking of loam materials will also be ongoing.

All construction-related vehicles and deliveries are being directed to enter and exit the job site through the North Main St. gate entrances. More signage will be included along Depot Street, which will direct vehicles away from School St. We want to reinforce the importance of keeping nonresidential vehicles from School St, as vehicles have been turning around in the street and in driveways.

Deliveries for Insulation and rebar have been fulfilled and are secured on site.
